

Anne Hibbert

Anne is the Founder and Director of Ministry at The Well Christian Healing Centre in Royal Leamington Spa. Anne leads, oversees and develops the Prayer Ministry at The Well. She also regularly leads and teaches at its Healing Training Courses and Quiet Days. Her passion is to help people encounter God and experience His healing in their lives.

Hils Grew

Hils is on the Leadership Team at Trinity Church, Cheltenham. She is the Life Groups Pastor there and has spoken at a number Women and New Wine conferences. She is particularly passionate about encouraging women to go deeper in their walk with Father- God and to discover more of His heart for them.

Streams in the Desert is part of The Well Christian Healing Centre, an independent charity based in Royal Leamington Spa, funded by donations and its own activities. There is no charge to attend a Streams evening but we are grateful for any donations you can make to support our Ministry.

STREAMS in the DESERT

Events for women for spiritual refreshment & focussing on God

2019 PROGRAMME

St Paul's does not have its own car park but on-street parking is available nearby, though this can get busy. There is plenty of other on-street parking within a few minutes of the church but as you get closer to the town centre, charges may apply.

The Well is a registered charity no. 1097443 and a company limited by guarantee no. 04664030.

Feedback from 2018

“So great to share worship with women you don’t normally see.”

“It is refreshing and everything about it is nourishing.”

“Not to be missed!”

“Personal, profound, interactive.”

“Really affirming of women.”

“Inspiring worship and thought-provoking teaching and we always go away with a gift!”

In the summer of 2000, God gave Anne Hibbert and Ruth Lockyer a unique vision to organise a regular event for women where there would be worship, creative prayer ministry and teaching – particularly emphasising

'The Father's Love'

Streams in the Desert is the result - events for women who want to meet with God and find encouragement and spiritual refreshment.

Each evening includes refreshments on arrival, worship, a speaker, prayer and a small gift to take home.

'The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom.

Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads.

Gladness and joy will overtake them and sorrow and sighing will flee away.'

Isaiah 35 v 1, 2, 6, 10

Who's who

Lori Arnott Lawlor

Lori whilst living in Canada became a Christian aged 3 years old, when her Dad John Arnott introduced her to Jesus. She writes, "I still remember the day, and the feelings I had. I can say that through the years, the faithfulness of The Lord has been very real to me. Learning of the Father's unconditional love, and the wonderful presence of the Holy Spirit have come to mean more and more to me." She moved to England in 2000 to be Pastor of Harvest Ministries Church in Hall Green, Birmingham. "I know that I am in England for His purposes. We all have a place in these final days before the Lord's return – to prepare for Revival. I, for one, want to make lots of space for the Holy Spirit to lead us into Revival – whatever, whenever."

Rachel Hickson

Rachel is married to Gordon and they travel internationally, training leaders, speaking at conferences, strengthening the Church, and love the diversity of our different cultures. Rachel is the author of 8 books, writing on prayer, the prophetic gift, and devotional guides. Rachel and Gordon carry a passion to see God touch the lives of people with His power and love.

Judy Moore

Judy is a speaker, writer and professional actress. She has performed a wide variety of classical and comic roles on stages around the world and was the Ministry Director for Saltmine Theatre Company for many years. She has a particular passion for storytelling and recently released a book of some of her stories entitled "The dog who thought his name was no." Judy is one of the senior leaders of Riverside Church in Birmingham and loves being with people, reading, live music, theatre and walking, preferably by the sea (not easy in Birmingham).
