

THE BEREAVEMENT JOURNEY

Bereavement affects everyone at some point in their lives, yet when it does there is little support for those affected.

We acknowledge that every bereavement is different, just as all relationships are unique. However, people may experience similar feelings and difficulties.

This course aims to provide a few signposts along the painful journey, and to provide community and support for those who have been bereaved.

The Bereavement Journey is a six-week course, and participants need to be able to commit to all the sessions, as each one will build on what has gone before.

The course will be co-led by Rev Anne Hibbert, The Well's Founder and Director of Ministry, and by several volunteer leaders who between them have a wide range of bereavement experience in both personal and professional contexts. We are particularly grateful to Carolyn Stone and Nikki Olorenshaw Smith, who recommended this course to Anne because of how helpful they had found it in their own bereavement experiences, and who are joining us again to co-lead it.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- This course is for anyone who has lost someone significant in their lives, whether recently or even several years ago.
- It is advisable that at least three to six months have passed since your bereavement, before you take part in this course.
- The course is based on Christian principles, but is suitable for anyone with or without a Christian faith.
- Both men and women.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Topics covered over the sessions include:

- Attachment, separation and loss
- Death in our culture
- The pain of grief
- Adjusting to change
- The faith perspective

Each evening begins with hot drinks served at 6.45 p.m. From 7 p.m. there will be short talks and video presentations, interspersed with opportunities for discussion in small groups for those who find this helpful. It is also quite ok to be silent in the groups and just listen to the discussion.

WHEN?

Monday evenings from 6.45 to 9.30 p.m.

- 9th September
- 16th September
- 23rd September
- 30th September
- 7th October
- 14th October

Each session builds on what has gone before.

AFTER THE BEREAVEMENT JOURNEY IN SPRING 2019, WE ASKED PEOPLE WHAT THEY FOUND MOST HELPFUL ABOUT THE COURSE. HERE ARE SOME OF THEIR COMMENTS.....

“Being able to talk to others in the same situation and learn from their experiences.”

“The information and explanations about what is part of grief journey clearly explained in videos.”

“The honesty of the leaders.”

“Knowing that everything was covered.”

“Listening to other people’s experience and having a forum for expressing your own without fear of criticism.”

“The layout of the course was very helpful - to be able to watch the video but then in groups have time to talk and share with others, also time for coffee and individually talking in between was very helpful.”

“The Well has provided a safe space for people to access information about the grieving process and journey, new to many, and to share stories and experiences.”
