WHY HEALING QUIET DAYS?

The Well is about creating a place for people to encounter the healing power of God. We have discovered that the various elements at a Well Quiet Day of worship, teaching, ministry and personal reflection help people to do just this!

The day will be led by Rev Anne Hibbert, Founder and Director of The Well.

THEME AND REFLECTION TIME

Psalm 91 oozes with God's promise of protection, presence and peace. In life we are often battered by disappointment, stress, bereavement, fear and illness. Here in this Psalm we discover how to access God's Hiding Place for us.

During the day Anne will look at some of the prominent themes within this Psalm. The first two verses are key. 'Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God in whom I trust.' The word 'dwell' indicates an abiding, an arriving or a staying in a particular place or relationship. 'Dwell' is the key. Relationship is the requirement. Psalm 91 is an amazing description of what life looks like when we opt to 'dwell' in God in a close relationship.

Anne will also look at times when we don't feel close to God perhaps due to sadness, bereavement, illness. Can we ask hard questions about God and still hide in Him?

Anne will give two talks in the morning and one in the afternoon. Each session will be followed by silent prayer and reflection times.

In the afternoon there will be an opportunity for Rest and Receive prayer. Therefore you may want to bring a pillow and something to lie on like a mat or blanket.

Jephson Gardens is nearby to enjoy short walks within God's creation.

Throughout the day, members of The Well Christian Healing Centre will be available to offer short times of individual prayer.

WHO IS THIS DAY FOR?

- Those who want to spend quality time with God;
- Those who are currently overwhelmed by life's circumstances;
- Those wanting to retreat for a few hours away from the busy-ness of life;
- Those who are bereaved;
- Those wanting to experience God's Hiding Place;
- Those who have never been on a quiet day before.
