Notes for the Confidential Disclosure Form

Before an appointment can be made, applicants who will have substantial contact in their roles with vulnerable adults or children will be required to obtain an enhanced criminal record check from the Disclosure and Barring Service (with a barred list check if appropriate).

All information declared on this form will be carefully assessed to decide whether it is relevant to the role applied for and will only be used for the purpose of safeguarding children or vulnerable adults.

Please note that the existence of a criminal record will not necessarily prevent a person from being appointed, it is only if the nature of any matters revealed may be considered to place a child or adult at risk.

Notes for Questions 1 and 2

The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) is an independent body, which came into existence on 1st December 2012. It combines the functions of the Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) and the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA).

If your position/role involves substantial contact with children or vulnerable adults, you must declare all convictions, charges, cautions, reprimands and warnings that are not subject to the DBS filtering rules. This includes 'spent' convictions. If it does not involve substantial contact, only declare 'unspent' and 'unfiltered' convictions, cautions, etc.

Convictions, cautions etc. obtained abroad (or the equivalent) must also be declared, as must any military offences.

If you are unsure of how to respond to these questions, please seek advice from an appropriate independent representative (e.g. your solicitor) because any failure to disclose relevant convictions, cautions etc. could result in the withdrawal of approval to work with children or vulnerable adults.

Note for Question 5

'Significant harm' involves serious ill-treatment of any kind including neglect, physical, emotional or sexual abuse, or impairment of physical or mental health development. It will also include matters such as a sexual relationship with a young person or adult for whom an individual had pastoral responsibility or was in a position of respect, responsibility or authority, where he/she was trusted by others.

Note for Question 6

If 'Yes', please make a statement regarding any such incidents.

Note for Question 7

If 'Yes', please give details, including the date(s) and nature of the conduct (or alleged conduct) and whether you were dismissed, disciplined, moved to other work or resigned from any paid or voluntary work as a result.

Please declare any complaints or allegations made against you, however long ago, that you have significantly harmed a child, young person or adult who is vulnerable. Any allegation or complaint investigated by the police, Children's Services, an employer, voluntary body or other body for which you worked must be declared. Checks will be made with the relevant authorities.

Note for Question 8

All these matters will be checked with the relevant authorities.
